WHAT

1. Students will learn a short dance combination. Even if dancing isn't your child's strength, that's ok! A good attitude goes a long way! Stay in character!
2. We will call students into our second studio to conduct main character auditions. These auditions will be one at a time and will involve a monologue and a song (if it's a singing part).
3. Then we will call in our group audition students. These auditions are for the students who are new to musical theatre and don't want to sing by themselves. This will result in an ensemble part.
4. Once individual and group auditions are complete we will call everyone in to do small group dance auditions.
5. Once all groups have danced, students will be free to go!
